Theragun: The Industry's Innovator

Our significant investments in engineering, technology, product, and software development are the reason we are the only company with four generations of products in the industry.

“I created Theragun Percussive Therapy to help people feel better naturally when they weren't in my care. Looking back, Theragun Percussive Therapy was a catalyst for a bigger mission. I'm proud to say that Therabody is committed to delivering on the mission to provide natural solutions that work.”

- Dr. Jason Wersland
