Lifespan makes your daily 10,000 steps simple with our treadmill desks. Stay active all day long without sacrificing time after work. Walking on your treadmill desk while working benefits your mind, body, and saves you time!

LifeSpan Fitness has been specializing in Treadmill Desk since 2001.

Since then, we have helped hundreds of thousands of people improve their health and extend their LifeSpan.

We set out on a mission and live by Life's Short, Live Longer.

Studies have shown that sitting and even standing for multiple hours a day is incredibly detrimental to one's health. Professionals have no time to stay active throughout the day and as a result are becoming increasingly obese and unhealthly.

Throughout the years, many companies have upgraded their traditional desk to height adjustable desks, but still, your body throughout the day is mostly stationary, why not step it up even more?

That is why we provide an innovative solution to sitting or standing all day. Now you work and stay active at one time. Get in shape, while you get paid. By combining a treadmill and a standing desk in a way that is quiet, durable, and easy to use, getting 10,000 steps a day is a breeze.

Get the Best of Both Worlds with a LifeSpan Fitness Treadmill Desk.

Treadmill Dimension

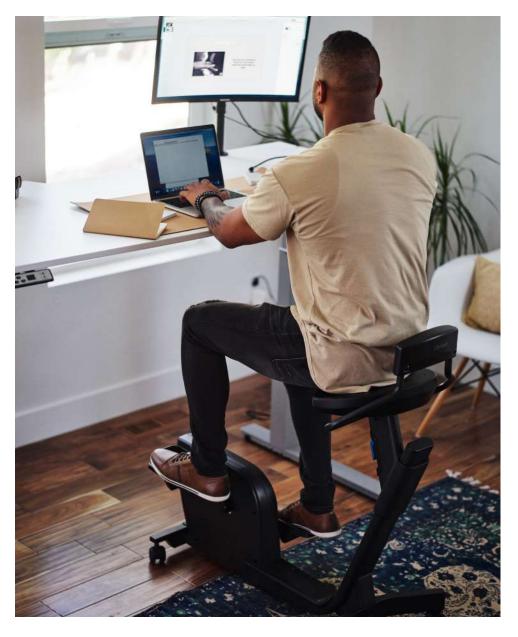

When it comes to staying active during your workday, we all want the same thing: a simple way to get our blood pumping while keeping us energized throughout the day. But what if you don't run or you're looking for a low-impact way to stay healthy and still burn calories?

LifeSpan Fitness has got the perfect solution for you. Stay moving at work with our Bike Desks.

Under Desk Bikes

The under desk bike is small enough to fit under most standing desks and height-adjustable to fit your comfort level. They can also be incorporated with communal tables where more than one cycle may be placed around the table in a common area. With limited assembly required for each of these portable offices, it's easy enough that you can start exercising while working right away.

C3-DT3

This under desk bike is the perfect addition if you are looking to add in activity into your workday and hate walking!

This under desk cycle is compact, quiet, and energy-efficient, making it perfect for the home office or workplace.

- ✓ Easy Assembly
- Small Footprint
- ✓ 2 Rear-Mounted Transport Wheels
- ✓ Up to 300 Watts Resistance
- ✓ No Backrest

SOLO UNDER DESK BIKE

Transform your standing desk into a comprehensive pedal exerciser by replacing your office chair with the LifeSpan Solo!

Ditch your sedentary office chair and introduce increased productivity and continuous movement in your workday with this under desk peddler.

- ✓ Cordless

There are many benefits to using a standing desk at home, the office, or in your new work from home space.

Lowers your risk of obesity

Helps to improve mood and energy levels

May lower blood sugar levels

Standing

Stand up for your health with LifeSpan's Standing Desk! Turn your boring workstation into an active workstation easily.

This Standing Desk is perfect for elevating collaboration, productivity, and comprehensive wellness.

May lower your risk of heart disease

Can boost productivity and focus

Reduces chronic back pain

Isn't it time you found a better way to work?

Standing desks offer so many benefits over the traditional seated-style desk. Not only can they lower your risk of obesity, cardiovasular disease, and reduce back pain, but using a standing desk can even boost your mood and make you more productive.

With our adjustable height workstation, you can set your standing desk up to perfectly fit your needs. Upgrade your standing desk with an under desk treadmill, bicycle, or balance board to further improve your health and wellness.

Don't just take our word for it...
